MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

Bill:

Since you probably will see Frank Sherwood on Thursday at the Executive Officers' Group Conference, you may prefer to handle this orally.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

THROUGH : Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Proposal to Invite FEI Classes to Headquarters

1. In response to your suggestion that we consider inviting FEI classes in the Residential Program in Executive Education to visit Headquarters, I recommend that you send a letter to FEI's Director, Frank Sherwood, which includes a standing invitation for the entire group to visit CIA for a one-day program, an invitation to have a visit to the Agency become a regular part of the seminar on foreign policy -- even if the entire group cannot come, and, an offer to provide senior officials to speak to the group at FEI, if and when Mr. Sherwood wishes. I have attached a proposed letter for your signature.

2. As you know, the Program is informally structured, with heavy concentration on development of executive skills, but in a class of about 60 senior executives from domestic agencies -- and about 25% of them from outside the Washington area -- there can be considerable gain for both the officers and CIA from any or all of the three types of participation.

3. Sending a senior official to speak to the group has always been the high point of the Program. While Dr. [REDACTED] was at FEI, he helped us arrange for this. (Jim, a psychologist, was one of Dr. Tietjen's careerists and was on OTR's management faculty up until the time he went to Charlottesville. He resigned last year to take a position at the University of California in Santa Barbara.) 25X1A

We think an invitation from you is in order now. We also like the idea of visits by the members of the seminar on foreign policy and hope that they can become a regular practice. We may, however, want to do more than what we are currently doing.

4. In each of the eight-week courses, executives in the class are free to convene the members in early-morning or evening sessions at which time they discuss their organizations. ([REDACTED], 25X1A and other CIA officers took advantage of this part of the Program and found their audiences large and receptive.) I suggest we capitalize on these "executive lectures," where possible, to discuss Agency-related matters. OTR, if you wish, can arrange briefings of officers selected for the Program.
